State Representative Steve Allison and Former State Senator Jeff Wentworth Endorse Laurel Jordan Swift for House District 121

SAN ANTONIO, TX: Today, current State Representative Steve Allison and former State Senator Jeff Wentworth formally endorsed Democratic nominee for House District 121, Laurel Jordan Swift. The endorsements come during the crucial first week of early voting and illustrate the bipartisan coalition of support that Jordan Swift's campaign has earned.

Rep. Steve Allison issued the following statement:

"Laurel Jordan Swift is practical, a problem solver, and will ensure that the constituents of HD-121 are represented by a legislator who has their best interests in mind — not one who is beholden to outside interests. Laurel has an impressive knowledge of the issues, raised her family in the district, and I'm confident that she is committed to doing what it takes to find common ground across both parties and better serve our great state of Texas. I'm endorsing and voting for her as the substantive and more qualified candidate, and I'm encouraging others to do the same."

Frmr. Sen. Jeff Wentworth issued the following statement:

"The real issue in this election contest is public education and whether Texas should divert money to vouchers and away from our public schools which are already inadequately funded. The fact that one has an 'R' behind his name and the other has a 'D' behind hers does not persuade me to vote for my party's nominee and against Texas public schools. I'm a Texan first and a Republican second.

That's why I will vote for Laurel Jordan Swift to represent me and the other 203,000 Texans who live here in Bexar County in House District 121."

Laurel Jordan Swift issued the following statement:

"The list of folks who openly support my campaign now extends to our sitting State Rep. Steve Allison - who was ousted during the primaries because of his vote to protect public schools and reject Greg Abbott's voucher scam. It also now includes Frmr. State Sen. Jeff Wentworth. I'm grateful to have Jeff and Steve in my corner and our team is working hard as ever to earn every vote over the next two weeks. Public education is at stake and HD-121 deserves common sense leadership, and you can guarantee that's how I'll lead in our state legislature."
