COSA - CITY CLERK
2025 APR 21 PM 02:31

On Saturday, April 19th, 2025, Councilman Marc Whyte posted photographs on his campaign Facebook page "Marc Whyte Campaign", that included himself and Chief William McManus of the SAPD, campaigning to a group of people while wearing City of San Antonio logos. Marc Whyte was wearing a shirt with the City of San Antonio logo embroidered on the front, and Chief McManus was wearing a hat with the San Antonio Police Department logo.

Describe the nature of the alleged violation, including if possible, the rule or rules allegedly violated:

This violates the state law against the "Use of City Resources."

Use of City Resources

State law prohibits the use of City resources, equipment, or money for election campaigning. This includes the use of photographs involving City employees (i.e., photos taken while that employee is on duty or with visible City insignia on their clothing) and City equipment in campaign materials including social media posts from campaign accounts. Please note that this prohibition remains in place even with the recent changes to the City Charter concerning City employee participation in local elections.

Describe all documents or other materials that are relevant to the allegation:

I have screenshots of the photographs that were posted on the Facebook page.

Describe all documents or other material that are relevant to the allegation but that are not in your possession, including the location of the document or materials if known:

The photographs are posted on the Facebook page "Marc Whyte Campaign" on the date of April 19th, 2025.
