Mr. Jose Macias, Ms. Laura Stanford, Ms. Suzanne Kenoyer, and Ms. Lisa Butler have carried out a relentless campaign of baseless attacks that have repeatedly been exposed as nothing more than a politically motivated smear campaign—leaving taxpayers to foot the bill and robbing our students of the time, resources, and attention they deserve.

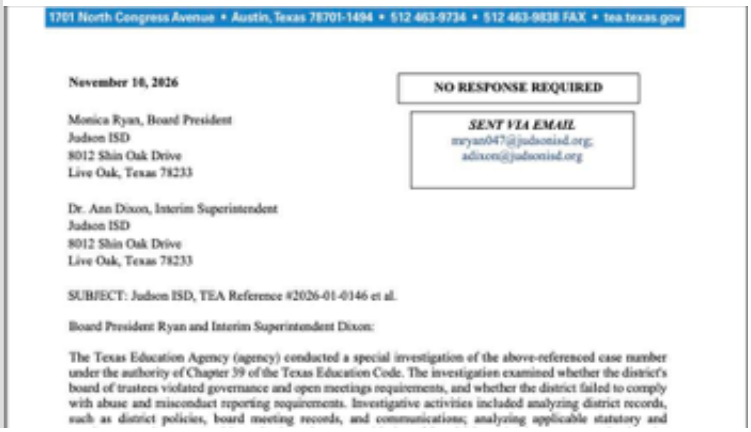

An internal investigation into me cost $33,365 of our students' money and found that I did nothing wrong. Their lawsuit against the district failed, with the judge ruling in Judson ISD's favor. The cost: $55,093 and still rising. Now, TEA has closed this investigation with, AGAIN, zero findings of wrongdoing by me—at a cost of over $28,500.

Yes, you have done the math correctly—that is over $100,000 spent on this B.S. How many students could have been sent to science camp with that $116,958? What else could that money have been spent on for our students? And that doesn't even include the additional $120,000+ that Mr. Jose Macias and his legal matters have cost. Almost a quarter of a million dollars—for what?

At some point, enough is enough. Our taxpayers should not have to keep footing the bill for personal and political grievances, and our students should not have to keep paying the price.

Just as the public heard the loud accusations from these accusers, the public deserves to hear, loud and clear, an APOLOGY from Mr. Macias, Ms. Kenoyer, Ms. Stanford, and Ms. Lisa Butler—not to me, but to the entire Judson ISD community. Most deserving of an apology are our STUDENTS! Most of our students would probably agree that those apologies should come with an immediate RESIGNATION from their positions. Accountability means answering for and accepting the consequences for making false accusations and wasting taxpayer and student money—and the community should be outraged and demanding that accountability.

Our students deserve elected leaders who put their education and well-being first, even under pressure. The threats, harassment, and intimidation I have faced will not deter me from standing up for them or making the decisions their future demands.

SUBJECT: Judson ISD, TEA Reference #2026-01-0146 et al.

Board President Ryan and Interim Superintendent Dixon:

The Texas Education Agency (agency) conducted a special investigation of the above-referenced case number under the authority of Chapter 39 of the Texas Education Code. The investigation examined whether the district's board of trustees violated governance and open meetings requirements, and whether the district failed to comply with abuse and misconduct reporting requirements. Investigative activities included analyzing district records, such as district policies, board meeting records, and communications; analyzing applicable statutory and engaged in conduct that prevented trustees from exercising independent judgment.

FALSE

Allegation 2: The board failed to adopt and implement policy, failed to properly evaluate the superintendent, failed to uphold adopted governance procedures, and allowed individual trustees to act outside their authority. Complainants allege recurring failures in agenda posting, public notice, trustee conduct, and board meeting conduct.

FALSE

Allegation 3: The Board President threatened and coerced the superintendent, interfered with administrative functions, and took actions that undermined the superintendent's lawful authority.
